VOTERS DEFIED OFFICIAL EDICT

Turn Out in Large Numbers in the Oklahoma Election.

UTMOST ORDER PREVAILED

Governor Walton Apparently Repudiated at the Polls, the Initiative Petition No. 79 Having Carried by a Heavy Majority—No Voting Done in Only Four Counties of the State. Thousands of Volunteers Respond.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 3.—Governor J. C. Walton, turbulent foe of the Ku Klux Klan, apparently was repudiated at the polls in the statewide special election held yesterday in defiance of his official edict and threat of arms.

Forbidden by the governor to hold an election, the people held it with virtually statewide emphasis and with the utmost order and law observance. The ballot proved stronger than the bullet in Oklahoma.

Initiative petition No. 79, weather vane of Walton's political strength in Oklahoma, was carried with a sweeping majority. No. 79 is the constitutional amendment which, if passed, empowers the state legislature to assemble itself, without the call of the governor, for the purpose of instituting impeachment proceedings against him or any other state officer.

Where polls were not allowed to open voters organized their own election board, set up their voting booths in dwelling houses or private offices, wrote their ballots on the backs of bank checks and note paper and cast them into cigar boxes and dishpans improvised for ballot boxes.

True, gunmen opposed gunmen, but not a gun was drawn. Governor Walton's vaunted 22,000 "minute men" faded like thin mist before the sun. Only his paid detectives remained, his faithful bodyguard—and they were outnumbered ten thousand to one. Display of force overwhelmed the threat of force.

Never in the history of any state crisis, save perhaps under the spur of war itself, has there been such swift, grim mobilization of armed men recruited by the county sheriffs, election boards and civic leaders to meet these missing "minute men" and fabled volunteers, numbering 75,000 men. The cry of "sovereign or serf? Vote your answer, women and men," brought them out to the polls in hundreds of thousands.

A hundred thousand men, estimated in conservative numbers, rose to the call as it swept across the level plains and the timbered hills of Oklahoma—a hundred thousand men who volunteered not alone to ballot, but to battle if it came to that desperate end.

Fully that many men were deputized in Oklahoma's 77 counties, the greatest number deputized in a single state in American history. In four counties only no voting was done.

Whether the election is invalid, as Governor Walton so declared it and maintains, only inevitable court actions will determine. But it was held.

"Gentlemen, the fight has just started. I am still governor; there will be no let up on the Ku Klux Klan."

This was the statement made by Governor Walton when he received newspaper men. He discussed the election, which he holds was illegal, and said the military court would continue its investigation of the Klan. "From returns thus far received," the governor said, "it looks as though the total vote would not exceed 150,000. The normal vote in the state is 600,000. Thus it can be seen that about one-third of the voters of the state went to the polls. Few of my friends participated in the election. The real election is set for Dec. 6, when we will have a real election."

Bigamy Charged.
Cleveland, Oct. 3.—Edith Sims, 22, was indicted by the grand jury on a bigamy charge. The indictment charges that she married Walter Sims in Columbus in 1919, and while still married to him married William Burns in Cleveland March 26, 1923.

Cubans Greet Luque.
Havana, Oct. 3.—Adolph Luque, star pitcher of the Cincinnati Reds, was welcomed on his arrival in Havana by a throng of 20,000 admirers. A parade was formed and Luque marched with the artillery regiment to which he once belonged.

INVOKE PADLOCK LAW

Dry Agents Order 1,300 Saloons in Philadelphia to Close Up.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—The padlock law, carried in the strong hands of the federal and state authorities, closed down on Philadelphia's 1,300 wide open gin mills, and the first thing the local police knew of the law's sweep was when "squeals" from the blind pigs began to pour into city hall over the telephone wires.

The sensational raid by the United States and the Pennsylvania state police, under direct orders of Governor Pinchot, found the saloons going in full blast, with liquor flowing as freely as before the passage of the eighteenth amendment. More than 700 of the 1,300 liquor places had been served with notice to close up, remove their bars and their beer pumps, their kegs and their bottles of booze, and their swinging doors as well, under penalty of being closed for one year as a nuisance under the "padlock section" of the Volstead law.

FOR FARM RELIEF

Senator Magnus Johnson Outlines His Program at Capital.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Magnus Johnson, newly elected Farmer-Labor senator from Minnesota, spent the day in Washington. He declared he is here to help the farmers. Reduced railroad rates on farm products and a guaranteed price of wheat are the outstanding proposals on Johnson's program for farm relief. "I have come to the senate to work for the farmers," the senator said. "Goodness knows they need it. I care nothing about the Ku Klux Klan, prohibition or other matters of that kind. What I want to see is that something is done to help the farmers make a living."

DICTATOR KAHR TAKES THE REINS

Premier of Bavaria Tenders His Resignation.

HITLER FORESEES CIVIL WAR

Head of the Bavarian Fascist Expresses the Belief That Armed Conflict is Unavoidable—Communists in Ruhr Oppose Abandonment of Passive Resistance—Black Reichswehr Attempt to Seize City.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—Premier Von Kulling of Bavaria tendered his resignation and has been succeeded by Dictator Gustav Von Kahr.

In a statement Dr. Kahr said: "I want to restore order, authority, respect for the state and devotion to Germany. I want to replace internationalism with patriotism. There is not a man in all Bavaria of any importance or influence who even remotely considers the possibility of secession from the reich. We are convinced that if we clear our own house first, all Germany will follow our example, and we intend to clear our house. A great majority of Bavarians and Germans are monarchists. The restoration of the monarchic system, however, must come of itself. It will be a great error to establish it by force, and no intelligent man contemplates trying it. We must wait until developments make it necessary and that time will come."

Adolph Hitler, leader of the Bavarian fascists, expresses the belief that civil war in Germany is unavoidable. "The revolution which began in November, 1918, is not half finished and when the time comes we shall see the end of the domination of the men who heaped shame after shame on Germany," he said. "I stood alone when this movement for liberation began. I was even locked up. But now our members are increasing with a rush. They come from every class, of soldier, from the humblest workman to the intellectual. The working men are deserting the Socialists in droves and coming over to us. We will march to Berlin if that is the only way to clean house in the Fatherland."

It now appears that the recent censorship measure was aimed chiefly to suppress the facts in the attempted capture of the old fortress city of Kuestrin by the "Black reichswehr." The facts as now revealed show that this attempt involved an experiment in the secret arming of forces against an outside enemy which may have foreign reverberation.

It appears that in the garrison at Kuestrin, which was maintained apparently without the knowledge of the higher army administration, there was a troops composed of young men, outfitted with regular army uniforms and equipment and quartered in army barracks. This troop was understood by the regular soldiers to be held for future use against France. The "Black reichswehr," in the absence of the regular troops on a pretence march, seized the citadel, intending to extend their action against the republican government.

When the regulars discovered the treasonable attempt, the loyal government troops surrounded the young adventurers and captured them all in the pitched battle which followed. The prisoners number the entire troop of 600 men, who will be tried by special court. Under the present martial law the leaders may be given the death penalty.

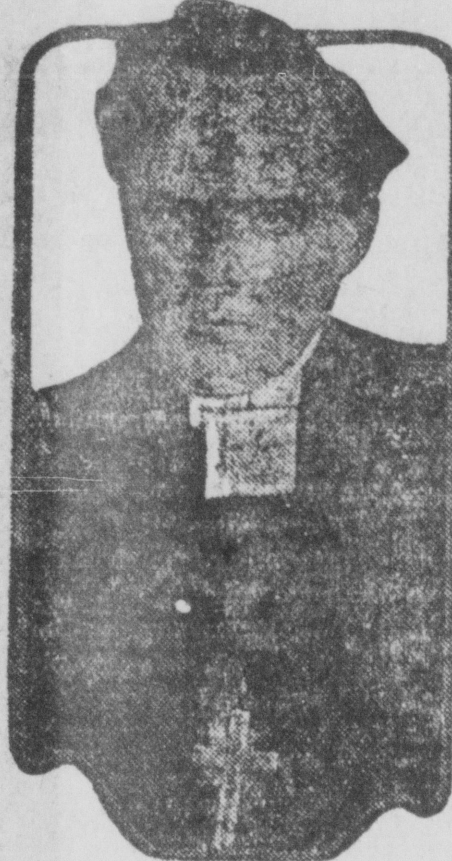

RAIL COMPANY WINS

Revaluation of All Property in Ohio May Follow Decision.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Revaluation of all property in Ohio, particularly real estate, may follow a decision handed down by Federal Judge Sater here, when he upheld the opinions of Master Commissioner Robert Nevin, Dayton, in his judgment in the case of the City Railway company of Dayton against Montgomery county. The Dayton company had complained that its property was being appraised at its true value and was taxed on this basis, while privately owned real estate went on the duplicate at materially less than its real value and paid taxes on this reduced appraisal. Contention of the company was sustained by Judge Sater's decision, which holds that all property is to be assessed at 100 per cent of its value. Judge Sater in his decision says that records show that in many counties real estate is valued for taxation in Ohio at less than its actual money value.

Reed of Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate committee, after a conference with Major General John F. O'Ryan, the committee's general counsel.

DOCTOR BEFORE GRAND JURY

Attended Mrs. Charles Webb On Her Deathbed.

POISON EXPERT TO REPORT

Webb Issues Statement Setting Forth the Circumstances of His Wife's Death and of the Making of the Famous Ten-Line Will Which She Signed on Her Deathbed, Leaving Everything to Her Husband.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Dr. William J. Meyer, who attended Mrs. Charles Webb, wealthy real estate operator, on her deathbed, appeared before the grand jury which is investigating reports that Mrs. Webb came to her death by poisoning.

At the same time Charles Webb, the husband, issued a formal statement setting forth the circumstances of his wife's death and of the making of the famous "10-line" will which she signed on her deathbed, leaving everything to him.

In the meantime Dr. Alexander Goettler, poison expert of Bellevue hospital, is completing his examination of the viscera of Mrs. Webb, and his report will decide whether criminal proceedings is to follow. His preliminary examination, he said, revealed traces of an irritant poison, but he was not able to say whether the quantity was sufficient to have caused death.

When Dr. Meyer left the grand jury room he said: "I've done my duty. I've told my story. I won't talk about it. The district attorney may talk if he wishes to."

Dr. Ernest F. Krug, who was one of the physicians in attendance upon Mrs. Webb, declared he had never told Mrs. Webb she had but 30 days to live, as had been reported by friends of the dead woman. "Do I look like that sort of a charlatan?" he asked indignantly when asked about the report.

In his statement Webb said in part:

"On Aug. 21, 1923, my wife was advised by Dr. Ernest F. Krug that the condition of her eyes indicated some trouble and he recommended her to consult a general practitioner."

"After leaving Dr. Krug's office she expressed a desire to make a will immediately and Colonel Kingsbury was called in as counsel for this purpose. When she explained her wishes he said it would be physically impossible to prepare so elaborate a will for execution on that day. She insisted, however, on making a will of some kind then and there, and after discussion the will of Aug. 21 was then drawn up by Colonel Kingsbury in his own handwriting and executed by Mrs. Webb."

Webb added that an elaborate will, based on the "10-line" will, then was made up, but in the meantime Mrs. Webb had gone to Roosevelt hospital and later to the Westchester-Biltmore Country club, where she died.

"Mrs. Webb never refused to execute the elaborate will," Webb said, "as has been suggested in some of the newspaper reports, but simply postponed such action for the moment after she had become seriously ill at the Westchester-Biltmore."

"I have no knowledge or information whatever in regard to the administration of any poison to Mrs. Webb in any way. Mrs. Webb was under the complete charge and control of Dr. Meyer and of two nurses (day and night), engaged by him during the entire period of her last illness."

ENDS LIFE IN RIVER

Adolph Melzer, Soap Manufacturer, Was Eccentric Character.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 3.—As dramatically as he had lived, Adolph Melzer, wealthy soap manufacturer, ended his life. His body was found in the Ohio river here. Melzer was Edison's collaborator on the invention of the phonograph, making the first soap rolls upon which the voice was recorded. For more than 30 years he lived the life of a hermit. In his vast soap factory, which he closed rather than sell to competitors, he fitted up a room. Surrounded by his books and dogs, he lived an eccentric life. A graduate of a German university, he spoke, read and wrote nine languages fluently. A lover of horses, he fitted up stables for over-worked horses, which he often bought from owners. It is believed that he took his life when he was informed that he would have to submit to an operation.

LEGAL BATTLE BEGINS AGAINST THE KLAN

Suit Filed in United States Court in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Oct. 3.—The Ku Klux Klan, through its imperial wizard, William J. Simmons and 3,000,000 members, proposes to supplant the United States government with the invisible empire, it was charged in a suit filed in federal court here.

The action, which consisted of a bill in equity, was believed to be the first move in a nationwide legal battle against the klan, beginning in a state which it is said had enrolled the largest number of klansmen to the present time.

An injunction was asked against the maintenance on the membership lists of the klan of the names of men who do not belong to the organization and also the naming of a receiver to take over the lists of klan members throughout the "realm of Indiana."

The suit was sponsored by Joseph R. Roach and Patrick H. O'Donnell, attorneys identified with the American Unity League. It charged that the oath of the klansman violates the criminal code and causes him to give false testimony before grand and petit juries; that amendments one, thirteen, fourteen, and fifteen of the constitution dealing with slavery, citizenship and suffrage would be nullified by the plans of the klan to oppress American citizens who are Catholics, Jews and negroes; that the klan would wear citizens from their support of the laws of the United States and would co-operate and take over a large part of the administration of justice.

Invasion of the United States army on a large scale by the invisible empire to the extent that "boards of inquiry" have been influenced and that members of the state militia and the army have loaned their assistance in violent, riotous and forceful manner to illegal meetings and gatherings held by the klan, also was averred.

 Apologizing—a very desperate habit—one that is rarely cured. Apologizing is only egotism wrong side out. Nine times out of ten, the first thing a man's companion knows of his shortcomings is from his apology.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION
 County W. C. T. U. Women Met in United Brethren Church Friday.

Mrs. Lucy E. Van Kirk, Editor of the Ohio Messenger, Was Principal Speaker—Mrs. Lucy B. Price Re-elected County President.

One of the best attended and most interesting conventions of Pickaway county's W. C. T. U. was held Friday at the United Brethren church.

The morning session opened at ten o'clock with the county president, Mrs. Lucy B. Price, in the chair. There was a song service conducted by Mrs. Lulu Kirkpatrick, of New Holland, followed by scripture reading and prayer by Miss Lydia Leist. The roll call of county officers, superintendents and local presidents was then read by the county secretary, Miss Drusie Heiskell, followed by the appointments of committees. Greetings and a cordial welcome was then given by Mrs. Bessie Long, which were responded to in a pleasing manner by Mrs. Bernice Ginder of Darbyville. Then followed the annual reports of the corresponding secretary, Miss Mary Porter and treasurer, Miss Emma E. Reber.

Mrs. Lucy E. Van Kirk editor of the Ohio Messenger was then introduced to the convention. Mrs. Van Kirk is a lady of engaging personality, who to know is to love and she gave a delightful talk on the Lancaster camp ground W. C. T. U. federation. The business of the day was then taken up; the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Lucy B. Price, Circleville; vice president, Mrs. Mary H. Dunlap, Circleville; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary E. Porter, Turlington; recording secretary, Miss Drusie Heiskell, Williamsport and treasurer, Miss Emma E. Reber, Ashville. A beautiful tribute was paid to each new officer for when they were presented to the convention by Mrs. Van Kirk each received the White Ribbon salute. It was a very inspiring sight to see that large audience of loyal women, waving their white handkerchiefs and pledging their loyalty anew to the officers.

Reports of the county superintendents were then in order, during which a touching mark of love was presented to the faithful president, Mrs. Price. In a voice choked with emotion, Miss Heiskell, the secretary, told of her faithful work and devotion to the cause and gave her with the love of the whole Union and from the Union, a beautiful pearl setted W. C. T. U. pin. Mrs. Price tried to respond in her usual gracious way, but it was too much for her, this tribute of love from her coworkers, so Mrs. Van Kirk turned it into a laugh by some witty remarks.

The noontide prayer was then given by Mrs. Dunlap, after which all repaired to the community house and enjoyed a box lunch. Coffee, ice tea and combination ice were served by the Circleville Union. At one o'clock there was an executive meeting during which the following superintendents were appointed for the ensuing year: Anti-narcotics, Mrs. Mary H. Dunlap, Circleville; child welfare, Mrs. Ethel Ridgway, Derby; Christian citizenship and legislation, Mrs. Ella H. Hornbeck, Williamsport; contests, Mrs. Abbie Gussman, Circleville; evangelism, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, Ashville; flower mission and relief, Mrs. Ona Cox, Williamsport; assistant, Mrs. Lucy Kline, Ashville; health, Mrs. Cora Dountz, Darbyville; L. T. L. Miss May C. Reber, Ashville; medical temperance, Mrs. Wilda Carpenter, Darbyville; parliamentary usage, Mrs. Adele Wall Circleville; publicity, Mrs. Bernice Ginder, Darbyville; Sabbath observance, Mrs. Mary E. Gray, Atlanta; soldiers' and sailors, Miss Hazel Morgan, Williamsport; Sunday school work, Mrs. Etta Graham, Derby; Bible in the public schools, Mrs. Cora Parks, Five Points; social morality, Mrs. Mary Winfough, Five Points; institutes, Mrs. Pearl Adkins, Atlanta; musical director, Mrs. Lulu Kirkpatrick, New Holland.

The afternoon session opened with the hymn "Guide Me, Oh Thou Great Jehovah" followed by devotions by Mrs. Abbie Gussman. A short memorial service was held for those who had died during the past year, fifteen having answered the last roll call. The confirmation of the county superintendents followed. Miss Drusie Heiskell, delegate to the national convention in a bright, interesting manner gave a snappy report of the session, which was very much enjoyed. A solo, "It is There to Stay" was then sung by Mrs. Boyd Trout. Mrs. Van-

Kirk then gave a splendid address, her main points the dangers of these modern times, the remedy, the Book of Books. God is still ruler, whatever man may say; God's will will prevail, however dark the day. After the address was reports of committees, reading of minutes, etc., after which the convention closed with the W. C. T. U. doxology and benediction. It was a great and glorious day; it was good to have been there.

Communion Wine Causes Fall of Church Robbers

Berlin.—Thieves who have been making the round of churches, stealing silverware, crucifixes and silver name plates on pews, were captured by the police recently. They had entered the Stralauer church and discovered eight bottles of rare wine used in the communion service, engaged in a drinking bout. Ribald songs and shouts attracted the attention of policemen, who forced the doors and arrested the revelers.

Thief Breaks Window and Grabs False Teeth

Washington.—The novelty record for petty thievery was broken here recently, when a burglar smashed the illuminated show window of a dental establishment and stole one set of false molars. While detectives are diligently seeking the molarless burglar, the dental establishment is endeavoring to ascertain whether any meat markets will suffer loss through theft as a result of the burglar's newly acquired teeth.

BLINDED IN THE WAR, HE'S BACK IN COLLEGE

U. of P. Students Extend Ovation and Honors to Hero.

Philadelphia.—Hundreds of enthusiastic University of Pennsylvania students gave a thundering ovation to Lieut. Frank Schoble, blinded war hero, who returned to the university after a lapse of 13 years to complete his college course and who was named a member of the Friars' Senior society, one of the most coveted honors on the campus.

The ovation came during the annual Hey day exercises in Weightman hall, when the classes of the university officially "move up." The applause lasted for three minutes when Schoble's name was read and he was led to a seat near the platform with the other honored students. Membership in the Friars' society is awarded to only the most popular members of the student body. Lieut. Schoble left the university in 1909 in his junior year to enter business. When the war came he went to an officers' training camp, received a commission and was sent overseas. Five days before the armistice a shrapnel fragment struck him just in front of the temple as he was leading his men into action. The bit of shell tore out the back of both eyes.

After his return to this country he resolved to re-enter college to complete his course. He immediately started to learn the Braille system of reading for the blind and picked it up so rapidly that he is now able to take lecture notes with the ease of a student who can see. His record in the university is excellent. In many of the courses he has received the mark of "distinguished."

In addition to his scholastic work Schoble is a member of the university's debating team. He participated in all the intercollegiate contests this spring, including the victory over Vassar. He will graduate in June, 1924.

Graduates From School He Has Never Attended

Kokomo, Ind.—Everett Raines will be graduated from a high school this year which he never has attended. He is one of a class of 120 students who will be given diplomas from the Kokomo high school.

Raines, who is eighteen years old, suffered injuries six years ago which have made the use of his legs practically impossible. He has determined to continue his education, however. Miss Bernice Havens, at one time a city school teacher, taught him at home and soon he was prepared for high school work.

Miss Virginia McCune, a member of the Kokomo high school faculty, took up the work then. Once a week throughout the four-year high school course she visited the Raines home, heard the young man's recitations and gave him new assignments. It is said his average grade in all subjects has been between 90 and 95 per cent.

Hotel Stenographer BY ROE FULKERSON

"Myrtle Madigan is married, or thinks she is" said the Hotel Stenographer.

"Is there any doubt about it?" asked the House Detective.

"O, the clergyman said the fatal words all right," sighed the girl, and he is hers, such as he is.

"But, Kelly, he plays a flute for a living. It doesn't seem possible to me that any man makes his bread and butter, blowing in a little hole in a hollow stick.

"I would never feel comfortable if I were Myrtle.

"At the sewing circle, making shirts for the heathen I'd hear a woman tell how her husband was painting the cupola on that big house in Leland park. I'd remember that my husband pretended to be a man, too but he was just blowing wind in a little hole.

"Some other woman would tell how her husband had just landed the city garbage contract and how he proposed to keep the town as clean as a hound's tooth. Her pride in his achievement would remind me that my husband was still blowing into a little hole.

"Maybe some woman will tell Myrtle how her Henry has been promoted to be the overseer of his gang on the bridge work they are putting across Roaring creek. Poor Myrtle will have nothing to boast of, except that her husband is still blowing wind into that same little black stick.

"When I get a man all for my own, Kelly, I want him to be doing a man's job. I want him to make the dirt fly some place. I want him to build up, or tear down, or something, where the work will make him cuss and grunt. "I want my children to come with me to where I can say to them, 'Darling, watch papa.' I know I could never do that, if papa was blowing into a little hole."

First Really National Bank.

Bank of North America was the name of the first bank of a national character. It had a charter for ten years, from 1741, from the confederation, but doubt as to its legality led the bank to seek and obtain a charter from the state of Pennsylvania in 1783. In 1785 this latter charter was revoked, but in 1787 it was renewed. It was located at Philadelphia.

His Happiest Moment.

She cuddled close to him, for it was the seventh anniversary of their marriage.

"Archie, dearest," she whispered, "what was the happiest moment of your life?"

"Ah," he replied, "how well I remember it! I can never forget—not even if I rival Methuselah in age! It will always stand out as plainly as it does tonight!"

She sighed and nestled closer.

"And when was it, Archie, love?" she pressed.

"Have you not guessed?" he answered. "It was when you came to me last month and told me your mother would not be able to spend her usual four months' visit with us this year!"

And they lived happily ever after.—Exchange.

Abstract.

The meaning of the noun abstract, in its most common use is that which embraces or embodies the essential parts or features of some larger object or whole; a summary or epitome, as of a book or document. The term of law, an abstract of title, means a document containing a brief and orderly statement of the original grant and subsequent conveyances and encumbrances relating to the title and ownership of real estate.

Life Calls for One's Best.

To make a success of life you must be always at it with your eye on the job. Diversion will stimulate far more intensive effort, but the effort itself must have no diverting influence. "This one thing I do," says the apostle, and in doing it he wins. Keep your eye on the ball and put your best into the game.

The great industry James J. Hinde built at Sandusky and other cities, prospered because of liberal wages.

APPAREL FOR WOMEN

AMUSEMENTS

Fred Niblo has outdone all of his previous efforts in "Strangers of the Night," the screen version of Walter Hackett's stage success, "Captain Applejack" which opened at the Met theater last night. The man who directed "The Three Musketeers" "The Famous Mrs. Fair" and "Blood and Sand" has again turned out a great screen play. Working on the brilliant story of the timid Britisher who becomes a pirate and roams the Spanish Main, he has embellished it with beautiful photography, magnificent settings and a superb cast. The picture is presented by Louis B. Mayer, thru Metro.

ROBERT MCKIM AND BARBARA LA MARR in "STRANGERS OF THE NIGHT"

Spectators were thrilled by intense drama and swept into gales of laughter as Matt Moore, in the role of "Captain Applejack," fought thru the mystery of the treasure hidden in his ancestral castle in Cornwall, and swaged and swore aboard his pirate craft. Enid Bennett's blonde loveliness contrasted with Barbara La Marr's dark seductiveness as these two brilliant actresses portrayed the intrigue and romantic adventure of the demure English miss and the beautiful Russian spy. Robert McKim was at his best as the leader of the pirate mutiny and others in the cast who stood out distinctively were Emily Fitzroy, Otto Hoffman, Thomas Ricketty and Mathilde Brundage.

Bess Meredyth was responsible for writing the excellent scenario and the memorable photography is credited to Alvin Wyckoff who left the De Milles to do this picture. Robert Ellis was the artist who designed the beautiful sets.

PRISON MUTINY QUELLED

Communists Plotting to Prevent Resumption of Work in Ruhr.

Cologne, Oct. 3.—The communists in the Ruhr, who are definitely opposed to the cessation of passive resistance, are openly plotting to prevent the resumption of work.

The French are demanding the payment of railway fares in the Ruhr in French or Belgian francs.

A red mutiny broke out in the German prison at Derendorf, a part of which is used by the French for their political prisoners. Krupp Von Bohlen, head of the great Krupp works, is detained there in the governor's house. Seventy convicts in the German section attacked the warders. One prisoner was killed and another seriously hurt, while several warders were hurt.

No Stars on Flag.
We are accustomed to speak of the "stars" on the flag. As a matter of fact, the national banner has no stars emblazoned on it. They are heraldic "mulletts," or five-pointed representations of the rowels of the spurs of a knight. Thus we have today on the flag a rowel, and not a star, for every state in the Union.

An Ancient Art.

The implements and methods of fishing have hardly changed since the earliest times. In the days of Pharaoh, the fishermen on the Nile used nets fastened on the end of long Y-shaped poles—not unlike the modern landing net. Paintings on Egyptian tombs show fishermen at work using drag-nets, hooks and lines and also bronze harpoons. The Old Testament speaks familiarly of fish hooks. Deep-sea fishermen are the product of medieval times. They were rough, primitive and superstitious. They fished in advance of traders, "skirmished ahead of the church," naming islands, rocks and shoals. Still these fishermen depended on nets just as men had thousands of years before. Even today, the men who put out of Gloucester still use implements almost identical to those used by primitive man.—The Mentor.

ORDINANCE NO. 450.

An ordinance to issue and sell bonds for constructing an extension to the sanitary sewer necessary to sewer Franklin street with vitrified pipe. Whereas, the Council of the City of Circleville State of Ohio, has requested the City Auditor to issue his certificate as to the estimated life of the improvement proposed to be constructed from the proceeds of the bonds hereinafter referred to, and the City Auditor has certified to this Council such estimated life of the improvement as estimated by him to be twenty-five years and has further certified the maximum maturity of such bonds as twenty-five years, and

Whereas, this Council estimates that a tax for said bonds will first appear upon the duplicate for the tax year, 1925, and that the final tax settlement with the County Treasurer next following the inclusion of a tax for this issue in the annual budget by the County Auditor as provided by law, will be obtained not earlier than September 1, 1925, and will require $85.25 interest until such taxes are collected and available, which interest is included in the duplicate for the tax year, 1925, and is hereby approved, and the General Code of Ohio, especially Section 3933.

Now therefore, be it ordained by the Council of the City of Circleville, State of Ohio, two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring.

Section 1. That for the purpose of raising money for the construction of an extension to the sanitary sewer necessary to sewer Franklin street, in the City of Circleville, Ohio, with vitrified pipe, it is hereby declared to be necessary to issue and sell and there shall be issued and sold, bonds of said City of Circleville, State of Ohio, for the aforesaid purpose, bonds in the sum of Sixteen Hundred and thirty-five and 25/100 ($1635.25) Dollars. Said sanitary sewer extension is described as follows to-wit: Beginning at a manhole at the intersection of Mingo and Franklin streets at elevation 62.24 feet above sea level and running east near the middle of Franklin street for a distance of 750 feet to a manhole on a one per cent grade to elevation 60.44 feet, accepting from 34 feet from the manhole at Mingo and Franklin streets which is covered by another contract.

Grading and all other necessary information are to be found in the plans specifications, estimates and profiles of the proposed improvement heretofore prepared by the City Engineer and now on file in the office of the Director of Public Service for public inspection and the same are hereby accepted and approved, and said proposed improvement is to be constructed in accordance with the same.

Section 2. That bonds of the City of Circleville, State of Ohio, shall be issued in the principal sum of $1635.25 for the purpose aforesaid. Said bond shall be numbered one, which shall also be its serial number. Said bond shall be of the denomination of $1635.25 and shall be dated September 1, 1923, and shall bear interest at the rate of five and one half per cent per annum. The first interest shall be due and payable March 1, 1924, and shall be payable semi-annually thereafter on the first day of March and September of each year until the principal sum is paid. Said bond number one shall become due and payable September 1, 1925, the payment of which bond, together with the interest is substantially the payment of the whole cost of said improvement.

The principal and all the interest of said bond shall be payable at the office of the Treasurer of the City of Circleville, State of Ohio.

Section 3. That said bond shall express upon their face the purpose for which they are issued; that they are issued in pursuance of this ordinance and shall be signed by the Mayor and Auditor and sealed with the corporate seal of said city. The interest coupons attached to said bond shall bear the fac simile signature of the City Auditor.

Section 4. That for the purpose of providing the necessary funds to pay the interest on the foregoing issue of bonds promptly when and as the same falls due and also to provide a fund sufficient to discharge the said serial bonds at maturity, there shall be and is hereby levied on all the taxable property of said City of Circleville, Ohio, in addition to all other taxes, a direct tax annually during the period said bond is to run in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay interest upon said bond as and when the same becomes due and also to provide a fund for the discharge of the principal of said serial bonds at maturity, which tax shall not be less than the interest and sinking fund tax provided by Section Two of Article XII of the Constitution. Said tax shall be and is hereby ordered computed, certified, levied and extended upon the tax duplicate and collected by the same officers in the same manner and at the same time that taxes for general purposes for each of said years are certified, extended and collected. Said tax shall be placed before and in preference to all other items and for the full amount thereof. The funds derived from said tax levies hereby required shall be placed in a separate and distinct fund, which, together with all interest collected on the same shall be irrevocably pledged for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds when and as the same fall due. Said bonds shall be offered for sale and sold in the manner provided by law under the direction of the Finance Committee and Auditor, but not for less than their par value and accrued interest; the proceeds from the sale of said bonds except the premium and accrued interest thereon and the amount of said bonds issued for interest, shall be used for the purpose aforesaid, and for no other purpose; the premium and accrued interest received from such sale and the amount of said bonds issued for interest shall be transferred to the Treasurer of the Sinking Fund to be applied by them in the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds in the manner provided by law.

Section 5. That the City Auditor is hereby directed to forward a certified copy of this ordinance to the County Auditor as required by Section 5649-1b of the General Code of Ohio.

Section 6. That the Director of Public Service be and he is hereby authorized and directed to make and execute a contract for said improvement with the lowest and best bidder after advertisement according to law.

SENTIMENT OF INDUSTRY
How Process of Packing Bottles in Corrugated Containers Was Started.
Were Made First in Home With Fluting Iron and Grew to Eight Large Plants—Employees Join in Profit Sharing Plan Thus Insuring Success.

The following narrative shows why it is necessary that even a well located industry should have as many local people financially interested as possible for its general well being.
"The Sentiment of Industry" a story about a locally owned and locally managed business. How it started with the simple inspiration of taking a waste product from the farm and converting it into useful articles much to the general benefit of the local community and the world at large.

The principal of this story a farmer, was one day delivering a load of hay to a mineral water bottling plant. Bottles of this water were wrapped in hay and packed in boxes and shipped to the cities for table consumption. The farmer had often watched the process of packing and his attention was called to the need of a cheaper, cleaner and better way of shipping bottles.

He told the bottler that perhaps he could show him a way out of this difficulty and on his way home stopped at a dry goods store and procured some empty paper boxes. These he carried home and upon arriving there asked his wife if she did not have a fluting iron, a household fixture previous to that time, which was used in fluting ruffles for ladies' dresses. The little machine was found, heated and the strips of box board were corrugated with it and sealed into envelopes of a size suitable for covering quart mineral water bottles. An experimental case of fifty of these bottles so packed was shipped to a distant city where it arrived without breakage an unusual thing heretofore. The result was that the inventor was asked for a price on the covers in quantities.

It just happened that this young farmer had a small interest in a very small paper mill, thru which source he learned of the American Strawboard company which had a large mill at Circleville. From them he ordered one ton of strawboard shipped to him and having it delivered to his home, with the help of his good wife he made a few thousand bottle wrappers which was a slow, tedious task with their crude, experimental apparatus. The idea conceived in the mind of the inventor was sound. It proved to be a better, cheaper and more practical method of bottle packing than had yet been made use of. The mineral water man showed him where there was great demand for his corrugated strawboard covers if he could put himself in shape to make them in quantities. There was the rub. To support his wife and small children required every cent of his income.

It happened that he had sound ideas. He was endowed with perseverance and integrity. Those few who knew him were not wealthy people, but rather humble workers like himself. They trusted him with their small savings. The business grew gradually and all employees were given the opportunity to invest their surplus earnings in the business, until one plant after another was built to supply all the great bottling houses and glass factories of this country and some in foreign lands.

They supplied the General Electric and Westinghouse lamp companies annually with fifty million electric lamp cartons. His business dealings with all men were fair and just and because of this he easily gained the confidence of the people which made a great and prosperous business that was managed much to the success of all who became interested in it and before selling his interest had grown to a capacity of eight large plants.

Before selling out he invented a freight shipping container made of paper introducing it to the trade to whom he had become so well and favorably known. This likewise was a great success proving a saving to the general public in freight expense of 25% in the aggregate, on all package goods. This man's farsighted vision had early shown him that to insure lasting success for his business he should have as many local people interested in a financial way as was possible, thus insuring community interest by giving them a share in the profits. Many of the great business concerns of the country are now convinced that to make lasting success they must interest their employees in a profit sharing way thereby breaking down that invisible wall or barrier, so often existing between employee and employer. The above sketch is a chapter from the life of James J. Hinde, who with his two sons is organizing a company here to manufacture shipping containers, now made use of in shipping very much of our package goods. This will lead to the building of a very large industry here, the starting of which will employ approximately one hundred and forty people.

SCIENTIST SAYS MEN DO NOT USE ALL OF BRAIN

Changes Taking Place in Human World Very Rapidly.

London.—We do not use our brains to half their capacity, says Sir Arthur Keith, British scientist, who has just returned from the African jungle, where he made a minute study of the brains of gorillas and gibbons.

"Most of us," declares Sir Arthur, "have more brains than we know what to do with."

The famous anthropologist said that changes are now taking place in the human world more rapidly than at any former period, but that the time has not yet come for the production of supermen. During the war, he explained, the average stature for a man was 5 feet 6 inches, the same as in the neolithic period. The average for men leading professional lives is 5 feet 8 inches.

The scientist says he is convinced that certain characteristics, which are easily recognized in the bodies of a large proportion of our modern population, are of recent origin. The most plastic bone in the human body, he said, is that under the gums, in which the teeth are rooted, and it is here that the most marked changes are to be noted.

"In quite 30 per cent of the people this bone," continued Sir Arthur, "instead of spreading outward and giving the roof of the mouth a wide and low vault, as in prehistoric races, grows in a vertical direction, giving the palate a narrow and high arch."

"In these contracted palates there is no longer room for the normal number of teeth. Such as appear are crowded; the wisdom teeth often fail to cut or are absent altogether."

"The recession of the teeth give the modern nose and chin an undue prominence; the tendency of all modern changes is toward the production of long and narrow faces. The 'adenoid' type of face, with which medical men are so familiar in modern children, was unknown in prehistoric times."

Plans to Drift for Three Years in Arctic

Capt. Robert A. Bartlett, who has come to New York to raise funds for a scientific expedition that will drift through the Arctic sea for three years in order to measure the flow of sea and air currents, dredge the bottom of the ocean for flora and fauna and chart the floor of the vast unknown sea. Bartlett is a veteran of five expeditions, the most famous of which was Peary's successful dash when he accompanied the explorer to within 110 miles of the goal.

Paris Prices Raise Again.

Paris.—The favorite topic of conversation in Paris, the high cost of living, displaced from time to time by the changing situation in the Ruhr, never is long neglected. Today it is flourishing. The vanguard of the 1923 crop of American tourists is here, and the retailers of the city are playing the game with the limit removed; any price goes.

New Claimant for Age Record.

London.—The latest entrant for international old age honors is a Hungarian woman by the name of Antonia Lippal, whose age is authenticated at one hundred and twenty-five years. She is reported to be in excellent health and very active.

Tobacco Juice Routs Bull That Treed Men

Kingston, N. Y.—Frank Dobert and Henry Wingle, while working in the woods near here were attacked by a bull. The men hastily climbed a tree, thinking the animal would soon leave, but it kept them treed nearly an hour.

Finally Dobert suggested spitting tobacco juice in the animal's eyes. After several wild shots Dobert scored a bull's-eye which started the animal at top speed toward the mountains.

The men then descended and resumed work.

MIGRATING TO CITIES

Farm Hands Deserting the Fields in Increasing Numbers.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Farmers are migrating to the cities, where bigger wages are to be had. They are deserting the fields in ever increasing numbers each year. Most every farm in the Buckeye state is short-handed, statistician C. J. West of the state-federal crop reporting service announced. "It is true that the new and modern farm implements relieve the labor shortage to a certain extent," said West, "but there have been so many farm hands decide to move to the city of late that even with all the modern farm conveniences the farmer is left short-handed." According to West, the shortage in farm labor is most noticeable around corn husking time. Corn huskers are scarce in Ohio, although a good husker can make comparatively big money.

Struck by Machines.

Cleveland, Oct. 3.—Frank Weltell, 24, was hit by a five-ton truck and died before he could be taken to a hospital. John Vontorek, 8, of Lakewood, died at a hospital here as the result of a fractured skull received when struck by an auto.

VOTERS DEFIED OFFICIAL EDICT

Turn Out in Large Numbers in the Oklahoma Election.

UTMOST ORDER PREVAILED

Governor Walton Apparently Repudiated at the Polls, the Initiative Petition No. 79 Having Carried by a Heavy Majority—No Voting Done in Only Four Counties of the State. Thousands of Volunteers Respond.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 3.—Governor J. C. Walton, turbulent foe of the Ku Klux Klan, apparently was repudiated at the polls in the statewide special election held yesterday in defiance of his official edict and threat of arms.

Forbidden by the governor to hold an election, the people held it with virtually statewide emphasis and with the utmost order and law observance. The ballot proved stronger than the bullet in Oklahoma.

Initiative petition No. 79, weather vane of Walton's political strength in Oklahoma, was carried with a sweeping majority. No. 79 is the constitutional amendment which, if passed, empowers the state legislature to assemble itself, without the call of the governor, for the purpose of instituting impeachment proceedings against him or any other state officer.

Where polls were not allowed to open voters organized their own election board, set up their voting booths in dwelling houses or private offices, wrote their ballots on the backs of bank checks and note paper and cast them into cigar boxes and dishpans improvised for ballot boxes.

True, gunmen opposed gunmen, but not a gun was drawn. Governor Walton's vaunted 22,000 "minute men" faded like thin mist before the sun. Only his paid detectives remained, his faithful bodyguard—and they were outnumbered ten thousand to one. Display of force overwhelmed the threat of force.

Never in the history of any state crisis, save perhaps under the spur of war itself, has there been such swift, grim mobilization of armed men recruited by the county sheriffs, election boards and civic leaders to meet these missing "minute men" and fabled volunteers, numbering 75,000 men. The cry of "sovereign or serf? Vote your answer, women and men," brought them out to the polls in hundreds of thousands.

A hundred thousand men, estimated in conservative numbers, rose to the call as it swept across the level plains and the timbered hills of Oklahoma—a hundred thousand men who volunteered not alone to ballot, but to battle if it came to that desperate end.

Fully that many men were deputized in Oklahoma's 77 counties, the greatest number deputized in a single state in American history. In four counties only no voting was done.

Whether the election is invalid, as Governor Walton so declared it and maintains, only inevitable court actions will determine. But it was held.

"Gentlemen, the fight has just started. I am still governor; there will be no let up on the Ku Klux Klan."

This was the statement made by Governor Walton when he received newspaper men. He discussed the election, which he holds was illegal, and said the military court would continue its investigation of the Klan. "From returns thus far received," the governor said, "it looks as though the total vote would not exceed 150,000. The normal vote in the state is 500,000. Thus it can be seen that about one-third of the voters of the state went to the polls. Few of my friends participated in the election. The real election is set for Dec. 6, when we will have a real election."

Bigamy Charged.
Cleveland, Oct. 3.—Edith Sims, 22, was indicted by the grand jury on a bigamy charge. The indictment charges that she married Walter Sims in Columbus in 1919, and while still married to him married William Burns in Cleveland March 26, 1923.

INVOKE PADLOCK LAW

Dry Agents Order 1,300 Saloons in Philadelphia to Close Up.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—The padlock law, carried in the strong hands of the federal and state authorities, closed down on Philadelphia's 1,300 wide open gin mills, and the first thing the local police knew of the law's sweep was when "squeals" from the blind pigs began to pour into city hall over the telephone wires.

The sensational raid by the United States and the Pennsylvania state police, under direct orders of Governor Pinchot, found the saloons going in full blast, with liquor flowing as freely as before the passage of the eighteenth amendment. More than 700 of the 1,300 liquor places had been served with notice to close up, remove their bars and their beer pumps, their kegs and their bottles of booze, and their swinging doors as well, under penalty of being closed for one year as a nuisance under the "padlock section" of the Volstead law.

FOR FARM RELIEF

Senator Magnus Johnson Outlines His Program at Capital.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Magnus Johnson, newly elected Farmer-Labor senator from Minnesota, spent the day in Washington. He declared he is here to help the farmers. Reduced railroad rates on farm products and a guaranteed price of wheat are the outstanding proposals on Johnson's program for farm relief. "I have come to the senate to work for the farmers," the senator said. "Goodness knows they need it. I care nothing about the Ku Klux Klan, prohibition or other matters of that kind. What I want to see is that something is done to help the farmers make a living."

DICTATOR KAHR TAKES THE REINS

Premier of Bavaria Tenders His Resignation.

HITLER FORESEES CIVIL WAR

Head of the Bavarian Fascisti Expresses the Belief That Armed Conflict is Unavoidable—Communists in Ruhr Oppose Abandonment of Passive Resistance—Black Reichswehr Attempt to Seize City.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—Premier Von Knilling of Bavaria tendered his resignation and has been succeeded by Dictator Gustav Von Kahr.

In a statement Dr. Kahr said: "I want to restore order, authority, respect for the state and devotion to Germany. I want to replace internationalism with patriotism. There is not a man in all Bavaria of any importance or influence who even remotely considers the possibility of secession from the reich. We are convinced that if we clear our own house first, all Germany will follow our example, and we intend to clear our house. A great majority of Bavarians and Germans are monarchists. The restoration of the monarchic system, however, must come of itself. It will be a great effort to establish it by force, and no intelligent man contemplates trying it. We must wait until developments make it necessary and that time will come."

Adolph Hitler, leader of the Bavarian fascisti, expresses the belief that civil war in Germany is unavoidable. "The revolution which began in November, 1918, is not half finished and when the time comes we shall see the end of the domination of the men who heaped shame and dishonor on Germany," he said. "I stood alone when this movement for liberation began. I was even locked up. But now our members are increasing with a rush. They come from every class, of soldier, from the humblest workman to the intellectual. The working men are deserting the Socialists in droves and coming over to us. We will march to Berlin if that is the only way to clean house in the Fatherland."

It now appears that the recent censorship measure was aimed chiefly to suppress the facts in the attempted capture of the old fortress city of Kuestrin by the "Black reichswehr." The facts as now revealed show that this attempt involved an experiment in the secret arming of forces against an outside enemy which may have foreign reverberation.

It appears that in the garrison at Kuestrin, which was maintained apparently without the knowledge of the higher army administration, there was a troops composed of young men, outfitted with regular army uniforms and equipment and quartered in army barracks. This troop was understood by the regular soldiers to be held for future use against France. The "Black reichswehr," in the absence of the regular troops on a pretense march, seized the citadel, intending to extend their action against the republican government.

When the regulars discovered the treasonable attempt, the loyal government troops surrounded the young adventurers and captured them all in the pitched battle which followed. The prisoners number the entire troop of 600 men, who will be tried by special court. Under the present martial law the leaders may be given the death penalty.

RAIL COMPANY WINS

Revaluation of All Property in Ohio May Follow Decision.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Revaluation of all property in Ohio, particularly real estate, may follow a decision handed down by Federal Judge Sater here, when he upheld the opinions of Master Commissioner Robert Nevin, Dayton, in his judgment in the case of the City Railway company of Dayton against Montgomery county. The Dayton company had complained that its property was being appraised at its true value and was taxed on this basis, while privately owned real estate went on the duplicate at materially less than its real value and paid taxes on this reduced appraisal. Contentment of the company was sustained by Judge Sater's decision, which holds that all property is to be assessed at 100 per cent of its value. Judge Sater in his decision says that records show that in many counties real estate is valued for taxation in Ohio at less than its actual money value.

Harper has ordered criminal prosecution of those responsible for the escape of inmates at the Girls' Industrial school as a result of the escape of two additional girls. Decision to open to the public the taking of testimony on that date was announced by Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate committee, after a conference with Major General John F. O'Ryan, the committee's general counsel.

DOCTOR BEFORE GRAND JURY

Attended Mrs. Charles Webb On Her Deathbed.

POISON EXPERT TO REPORT

Webb Issues Statement Setting Forth the Circumstances of His Wife's Death and of the Making of the Famous Ten-Line Will Which She Signed on Her Deathbed, Leaving Everything to Her Husband.

White Plains, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Dr. William J. Meyer, who attended Mrs. Charles Webb, wealthy real estate operator, on her deathbed, appeared before the grand jury which is investigating reports that Mrs. Webb came to her death by poisoning.

At the same time Charles Webb, the husband, issued a formal statement setting forth the circumstances of his wife's death and of the making of the famous "10-line" will which she signed on her deathbed, leaving everything to him.

In the meantime Dr. Alexander Goettler, poison expert of Bellevue hospital, is completing his examination of the viscera of Mrs. Webb, and his report will decide whether criminal proceedings are to follow. His preliminary examination, he said, revealed traces of an irritant poison, but he was not able to say whether the quantity was sufficient to have caused death.

When Dr. Meyer left the grand jury room he said: "I've done my duty. I've told my story. I won't talk about it. The district attorney may talk if he wishes to."

Dr. Ernest F. Krug, who was one of the physicians in attendance upon Mrs. Webb, declared he had never told Mrs. Webb she had but 30 days to live, as had been reported by friends of the dead woman. "Do I look like that sort of a charlatan?" he asked indignantly when asked about the report.

In his statement Webb said in part:

"On Aug. 21, 1923, my wife was advised by Dr. Ernest F. Krug that the condition of her eyes indicated some trouble and he recommended her to consult a general practitioner. "After leaving Dr. Krug's office she expressed a desire to make a will immediately and Colonel Kingsbury was called in as counsel for this purpose. When she explained her wishes he said it would be physically impossible to prepare so elaborate a will for execution on that day. She insisted, however, on making a will of some kind then and there, and after discussion the will of Aug. 21 was then drawn up by Colonel Kingsbury in his own handwriting and executed by Mrs. Webb."

Webb added that an elaborate will, based on the "10-line" will, then was made up, but in the meantime Mrs. Webb had gone to Roosevelt hospital and later to the Westchester-Biltmore Country club, where she died.

"Mrs. Webb never refused to execute the elaborate will," Webb said, "as has been suggested in some of the newspaper reports, but simply postponed such action for the moment after she had become seriously ill at the Westchester-Biltmore."

"I have no knowledge or information whatever in regard to the administration of any poison to Mrs. Webb in any way. Mrs. Webb was under the complete charge and control of Dr. Meyer and of two nurses (day and night), engaged by him during the entire period of her last illness."

TO GREET LLOYD GEORGE

New York Plans Big Reception For the Former Premier.

New York, Oct. 3.—When David Lloyd George, former premier of Great Britain, arrives in New York aboard the Mauretania Friday he will be welcomed with enthusiasm. A committee of 400 distinguished citizens has been formed to receive the distinguished statesman. Irving T. Bush is chairman of the executive committee arranging the details of the reception. Serving with him will be such national figures as Elbert H. Gary, Charles M. Schwab, Clarence H. Mackay, Archbishop Hayes, P. A. S. Franklin, Oscar S. Strauss, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., William Randolph Hearst and Adolph S. Ochs.

The former premier and his party will be escorted to the Battery, and thence to the city hall, where Acting Mayor Hulbert will grant him the freedom of the city.

ENDS LIFE IN RIVER

Adolph Melzer, Soap Manufacturer, Was Eccentric Character.

Evansville, Ind., Oct. 3.—As dramatically as he had lived, Adolph Melzer, wealthy soap manufacturer, ended his life. His body was found in the Ohio river here. Melzer was Edison's collaborator on the invention of the phonograph, making the first soap rolls upon which the voice was recorded. For more than 30 years he lived the life of a hermit. In his vast soap factory, which he closed rather than sell to competitors, he fitted up a room. Surrounded by his books and dogs, he lived an eccentric life. A graduate of a German university, he spoke, read and wrote nine languages fluently. A lover of horses, he fitted up stables for over-worked horses, which he often bought from owners. It is believed that he took his life when he was informed that he would have to submit to an operation.

LEGAL BATTLE BEGINS AGAINST THE KLAN

Suit Filed in United States Court in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Oct. 3.—The Ku Klux Klan, through its imperial wizard, William J. Simmons and 3,000,000 members, proposes to supplant the United States government with the invisible empire, it was charged in a suit filed in federal court here.

The action, which consisted of a bill in equity, was believed to be the first move in a nationwide legal battle against the klan, beginning in a state which it is said had enrolled the largest number of klansmen to the present time.

An injunction was asked against the maintenance on the membership lists of the klan of the names of men who do not belong to the organization and also the naming of a receiver to take over the lists of klan members throughout the "realm of Indiana."

The suit was sponsored by Joseph R. Roach and Patrick H. O'Donnell, attorneys identified with the American Unity League. It charged that the oath of the klansman violates the criminal code and causes him to give false testimony before grand and petit juries; that amendments one, thirteen, fourteen, and fifteen of the constitution dealing with slavery, citizenship and suffrage would be nullified by the plans of the klan to oppress American citizens who are Catholics, Jews and negroes; that the klan would wear citizens from their support of the laws of the United States and would co-operate and take over a large part of the administration of justice.

Invasion of the United States army on a large scale by the invisible empire to the extent that "boards of inquiry" have been influenced and that members of the state militia and the army have loaned their assistance in violent, riotous and forceful manner to illegal meetings and gatherings held by the klan, also was averred.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

County W. C. T. U. Women Met in United Brethren Church Friday.

Mrs. Lucy E. Van Kirk, Editor of the Ohio Messenger, Was Principal Speaker—Mrs. Lucy B. Price Re-elected County President.

One of the best attended and most interesting conventions of Pickaway county's W. C. T. U. was held Friday at the United Brethren church.

The morning session opened at ten o'clock with the county president, Mrs. Lucy B. Price, in the chair. There was a song service conducted by Mrs. Lulu Kirkpatrick, of New Holland, followed by scripture reading and prayer by Miss Lydia Leist. The roll call of county officers, superintendents and local presidents was then read by the county secretary, Miss Drusie Heiskell, followed by the appointments of committees. Greetings and a cordial welcome was then given by Mrs. Bessie Long, which were responded to in a pleasing manner by Mrs. Bernice Ginder of Darbyville. Then followed the annual reports of the corresponding secretary, Miss Mary Porter and treasurer, Miss Emma E. Reber.

Mrs. Lucy E. Van Kirk editor of the Ohio Messenger was then introduced to the convention. Mrs. Van Kirk is a lady of engaging personality, who to know is to love and she gave a delightful talk on the Lancaster camp ground W. C. T. U. federation. The business of the day was then taken up; the election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Lucy B. Price, Circleville; vice president, Mrs. Mary H. Dunlap, Circleville; corresponding secretary, Miss Mary E. Porter, Tarlton; recording secretary, Miss Drusie Heiskell, Williamsport and treasurer, Miss Emma E. Reber, Ashville. A beautiful tribute was paid to each new officer for when they were presented to the convention by Mrs. Van Kirk each received the White Ribbon salute. It was a very inspiring sight to see that large audience of loyal women, waving their white handkerchiefs and pledging their loyalty anew to the officers.

Reports of the county superintendents were then in order, during which a touching mark of love was presented to the faithful president, Mrs. Price. In a voice choked with emotion, Miss Heiskell, the secretary, told of her faithful work and devotion to the cause and gave her with the love of the whole Union and from the Union, a beautiful pearl settled W. C. T. U. pin. Mrs. Price tried to respond in her usual gracious way, but it was too much for her, this tribute of love from her coworkers, so Mrs. Van Kirk turned it into a laugh by some witty remarks.

The noontide prayer was then given by Mrs. Dunlap, after which all repaired to the community house and enjoyed a box lunch. Coffee, ice tea and combination ice were served by the Circleville Union. At one o'clock there was an executive meeting during which the following superintendents were appointed for the ensuing year: Anti-narcotics, Mrs. Mary H. Dunlap, Circleville; child welfare, Mrs. Ethel Ridgway, Derby; Christian citizenship and legislation, Mrs. Ella H. Hornbeck, Williamsport; contests, Mrs. Abbie Gussman, Circleville; evangelism, Mrs. Elizabeth Wright, Ashville; flower mission and relief, Mrs. Ona Cox, Williamsport; assistant Mrs. Lucy Kline, Ashville; health, Mrs. Cora Dountz, Darbyville; L. T. L. Miss May C. Reber, Ashville; medical temperance, Mrs. Wilda Carpenter, Darbyville; parliamentary usage, Mrs. Adele Wall Circleville; publicity, Mrs. Bernice Ginder, Darbyville; Sabbath observance, Mrs. Mary E. Gray, Atlanta; soldiers' and sailors, Miss Hazel Morgan, Williamsport; Sunday school work, Mrs. Etta Graham, Derby; Bible in the public schools, Mrs. Cora Parks, Five Points; social morality, Mrs. Mary Winfough, Five Points; institutes, Mrs. Pearl Adkins, Atlanta; musical director, Mrs. Lulu Kirkpatrick, New Holland.

The afternoon session opened with the hymn "Guide Me, Oh Thou Great Jehovah" followed by devotions by Mrs. Abbie Gussman. A short memorial service was held for those who had died during the past year, fifteen having answered the last roll call. The confirmation of the county superintendents followed. Miss Drusie Heiskell, delegate to the national convention in a bright, interesting manner gave a snappy report of the session, which was very much enjoyed. A solo, "It is There to Stay" was then sung by Mrs. Boyd Trout. Mrs. Van-

Kirk then gave a splendid address, her main points the dangers of these modern times, the remedy, the Book of Books. God is still ruler, whatever man may say; God's will will prevail, however dark the day. After the address was reports of committees, reading of minutes, etc., after which the convention closed with the W. C. T. U. doxology and benediction. It was a great and glorious day; it was good to have been there.

Communion Wine Causes

Fall of Church Robbers

Berlin.—Thieves who have been making the round of churches, stealing silverware, crucifixes and silver name plates on pews, were captured by the police recently. They had entered the Stralauer church and discovered eight bottles of rare wine used in the communion service, engaged in a drinking bout. Ribald songs and shouts attracted the attention of policemen, who forced the doors and arrested the revelers.

Thief Breaks Window

and Grabs False Teeth

Washington.—The novelty record for petty thievery was broken here recently, when a burglar smashed the illuminated show window of a dental establishment and stole one set of false molars. While detectives are diligently seeking the molarless burglar, the dental establishment is endeavoring to ascertain whether any meat markets will suffer loss through theft as a result of the burglar's newly acquired teeth.

BLINDED IN THE WAR,
HE'S BACK IN COLLEGEU. of P. Students Extend Ovation
and Honors to Hero.

Philadelphia.—Hundreds of enthusiastic University of Pennsylvania students gave a thundering ovation to Lieut. Frank Schoble, blinded war hero, who returned to the university after a lapse of 13 years to complete his college course and who was named a member of the Friars' Senior society, one of the most coveted honors on the campus.

The ovation came during the annual Hey day exercises in Weightman hall, when the classes of the university officially "move up." The applause lasted for three minutes when Schoble's name was read and he was led to a seat near the platform with the other honored students. Membership in the Friars' society is awarded to only the most popular members of the student body.

Lieut. Schoble left the university in 1909 in his junior year to enter business. When the war came he went to an officers' training camp, received a commission and was sent overseas. Five days before the armistice a shrapnel fragment struck him just in front of the temple as he was leading his men into action. The bit of shell tore out the back of both eyes.

After his return to this country he resolved to re-enter college to complete his course. He immediately started to learn the Braille system of reading for the blind and picked it up so rapidly that he is now able to take lecture notes with the ease of a student who can see. His record in the university is excellent. In many of the courses he has received the mark of "distinguished."

In addition to his scholastic work Schoble is a member of the university's debating team. He participated in all the intercollegiate contests this spring, including the victory over Vassar. He will graduate in June, 1924.

Graduates From School
He Has Never Attended

Kokomo, Ind.—Everett Raines will be graduated from a high school this year which he never has attended. He is one of a class of 120 students who will be given diplomas from the Kokomo high school.

Raines, who is eighteen years old, suffered injuries six years ago which have made the use of his legs practically impossible. He has determined to continue his education, however. Miss Bernice Havens, at one time a city school teacher, taught him at home and soon he was prepared for high school work.

Miss Virginia McCune, a member of the Kokomo high school faculty, took up the work then. Once a week throughout the four-year high school course she visited the Raines home, heard the young man's recitations and gave him new assignments. It is said his average grade in all subjects has been between 90 and 95 per cent.

Hotel Stenographer
BY ROE FULKERSON

"Myrtle Madison is married, or thinks she is," said the Hotel Stenographer.
"Is there any doubt about it?" asked the House Detective.

"O, the clergyman said the fatal words all right," sighed the girl, and he is hers, such as he is.

"But, Kelly, he plays a flute for a living. It doesn't seem possible to me that any man makes his bread and butter, blowing in a little hole in a hollow stick.

"I would never feel comfortable if I were Myrtle.

"At the sewing circle, making shirts for the heathen I'd hear a woman tell how her husband was painting the cupola on that big house in Leland park. I'd remember that my husband pretended to be a man, too but he was just blowing wind in a little hole.

"Some other woman would tell how her husband had just landed the city garbage contract and how he proposed to keep the town as clean as a hound's tooth. Her pride in his achievement would remind me that my husband was still blowing into a little hole.

"Maybe some woman will tell Myrtle how her Henry has been promoted to be the overseer of his gang on the bridge work they are putting across Roaring creek. Poor Myrtle will have nothing to boast of, except that her husband is still blowing wind into that same little black stick.

"When I get a man all for my own, Kelly, I want him to be doing a man's job. I want him to make the dirt fly some place. I want him to build up, or tear down, or something, where the work will make him cuss and grunt.
"I want my children to come with me to where I can say to them, 'Darling, watch papa.' I know I could never do that, if papa was blowing into a little hole."

REGISTRATION

At Ohio State University Will Reach 8400 by End of Week.

Total enrollment to date is 100 greater than had been reached October 10, of last year, Louis A. Kuntz, university comptroller, said Tuesday. Enrollment at the end of the week should reach 8400, he said.

A. secretary; Boni Petcoff, football captain and George M. Troutman, freshman coach, were among the speakers. Cheer leaders were on hand to teach the yearlings the songs and yells of the university.

First Really National Bank.

Bank of North America was the name of the first bank of a national character. It had a charter for ten years, from 1741, from the confederation, but doubt as to its legality led the bank to seek and obtain a charter from the state of Pennsylvania in 1783. In 1785 this latter charter was revoked, but in 1787 it was renewed. It was located at Philadelphia.

His Happiest Moment.

She cuddled close to him, for it was the seventh anniversary of their marriage.

"Archie, dearest," she whispered, "what was the happiest moment of your life?"

"Ah," he replied, "how well I remember it! I can never forget—not even if I rival Methuselah in age! It will always stand out as plainly as it does tonight!"

She sighed and nestled closer. "And when was it, Archie, love?" she pressed.

"Have you not guessed?" he answered. "It was when you came to me last month and told me your mother would not be able to spend her usual four months' visit with us this year!"

And they lived happily ever after.—Exchange.

Abstract.
The meaning of the noun abstract, in its most common use is that which embraces or embodies the essential parts or features of some larger object or whole; a summary or epitome, as of a book or document. The term of law, an abstract of title, means a document containing a brief and orderly statement of the original grant and subsequent conveyances and encumbrances relating to the title and ownership of real estate.

Life Calls for One's Best.
To make a success of life you must be always at it with your eye on the job. Diversion will stimulate far more intensive effort, but the effort itself must have no diverting influence. "This one thing I do," says the apostle, and in doing it he wins. Keep your eye on the ball and put your best into the game.

The great industry James J. Hinde built at Sandusky and other cities, prospered because of liberal wages.

FRIEDMAN'S

AMUSEMENTS

Fred Niblo has outdone all of his previous efforts in "Strangers of the Night," the screen version of Walter Hackett's stage success, "Captain Applejack" which opened at the Met theater last night. The man who directed "The Three Musketeers," "The Fancus Mrs. Fair" and "Blood and Sand" has again turned out a great screen play. Working on the brilliant story of the timid Britisher who becomes a pirate and roams the Spanish Main, he has embellished it with beautiful photography, magnificent settings and a superb cast. The picture is presented by Louis B. Mayer, thru Metro.

ROBERT McKIM AND BARBARA LA MARR in "STRANGERS OF THE NIGHT"

Spectators were thrilled by intense drama and swept into gales of laughter as Matt Moore, in the role of "Captain Applejack," fought thru the mystery of the treasure hidden in his ancestral castle in Cornwall, and swaged and swore aboard his pirate craft. Enid Bennett's blonde loveliness contrasted with Barbara La Marr's dark seductiveness as these two brilliant actresses portrayed the intrigue and romantic adventure of the demure English miss and the beautiful Russian spy. Robert McKim was at his best as the leader of the pirate mutiny and others in the cast who stood out distinctively were Emily Fitzroy, Otto Hoffman, Thomas Rickett and Mathilde Brundage.

Bess Meredyth was responsible for writing the excellent scenario and the memorable photography is credited to Alvin Wyckoff who left the De Milles to do this picture. Robert Ellis was the artist who designed the beautiful sets.

PRISON MUTINY QUELLED

Communists Plotting to Prevent Resumption of Work in Ruhr.

Cologne, Oct. 3.—The communists in the Ruhr, who are definitely opposed to the cessation of passive resistance, are openly plotting to prevent the resumption of work. The French are demanding the payment of railway fares in the Ruhr in French or Belgian francs. A red mutiny broke out in the German prison at Derendorf, a part of which is used by the French for their political prisoners. Krupp Von Bohlen, head of the great Krupp works, is detained there in the governor's house. Seventy convicts in the German section attacked the warders. One prisoner was killed and another seriously hurt, while several warders were hurt.

No Stars on Flag.

We are accustomed to speak of the "stars" on the flag. As a matter of fact, the national banner has no stars emblazoned on it. They are heraldic "mulletts," or five-pointed representations of the rowels of the spurs of a knight. Thus we have today on the flag a rowel, and not a star, for every state in the Union.

An Ancient Art.

The implements and methods of fishing have hardly changed since the earliest times. In the days of Pharaoh, the fishermen on the Nile used nets fastened on the end of long Y-shaped poles—not unlike the modern landing net. Paintings on Egyptian tombs show fishermen at work using drag-nets, hooks and lines and also bronze harpoons. The Old Testament speaks familiarly of fish hooks. Deep-sea fishermen are the product of medieval times. They were rough, primitive and superstitious. They fished in advance of traders, "skirmished ahead of the church," naming islands, rocks and shoals. Still these fishermen depended on nets just as men had thousands of years before. Even today, the men who put out of Gloucester still use implements almost identical to those used by primitive man.—The Mentor.

SENTIMENT OF INDUSTRY

How Process of Packing Bottles in Corrugated Containers Was Started.

Were Made First in Home With Fluting Iron and Grew to Eight Large Plants—Employees Join in Profit Sharing Plan Thus Insuring Success.

The following narrative shows why it is necessary that even a well located industry should have as many local people financially interested as possible for its general well being.

"The Sentiment of Industry" a story about a locally owned and locally managed business. How it started with the simple inspiration of taking a waste product from the farm and converting it into useful articles much to the general benefit of the local community and the world at large.

The principal of this story a farmer, was one day delivering a load of hay to a mineral water bottling plant. Bottles of this water were wrapped in hay and packed in boxes and shipped to the cities for table consumption. The farmer had often watched the process of packing and his attention was called to the need of a cheaper, cleaner and better way of shipping bottles.

He told the bottler that perhaps he could show him a way out of this difficulty and on his way home stopped at a dry goods store and procured some empty paper boxes. These he carried home and upon arriving there asked his wife if she did not have a fluting iron, a household fixture previous to that time, which was used in fluting ruffles for ladies' dresses.

The little machine was found, heated and the strips of box board were corrugated with it and sealed into envelopes of a size suitable for covering quart mineral water bottles. An experimental case of fifty of these bottles so packed was shipped to a distant city where it arrived without breakage an unusual thing heretofore. The result was that the inventor was asked for a price on the covers in quantities.

It just happened that this young farmer had a small interest in a very small paper mill, thru which source he learned of the American Strawboard company which had a large mill at Circleville. From them he ordered one ton of strawboard shipped to him and having it delivered to his home, with the help of his good wife he made a few thousand bottle wrappers which was a slow, tedious task with their crude, experimental apparatus.

The idea conceived in the mind of the inventor was sound. It proved to be a better, cheaper and more practical method of bottle packing than had yet been made use of. The mineral water man showed him where there was great demand for his corrugated strawboard covers if he could put himself in shape to make them in quantities. There was the rub. To support his wife and small children required every cent of his income.

It happened that he had sound ideas. He was endowed with perseverance and integrity. Those few who knew him were not wealthy people, but rather humble workers like himself. They trusted him with their small savings.

The business grew gradually and all employees were given the opportunity to invest their surplus earnings in the business, until one plant after another was built to supply all the great bottling houses and glass factories of this country and some in foreign lands.

They supplied the General Electric and Westinghouse lamp companies annually with fifty million electric lamp cartons. His business dealings with all men were fair and just and because of this he easily gained the confidence of the people which made a great and prosperous business that was managed much to the success of all who became interested in it and before selling his interest had grown to a capacity of eight large plants.

Before selling out he invented a freight shipping container made of paper introducing it to the trade to whom he had become so well and favorably known. This likewise was a great success proving a saving to the general public in freight expense of 25% in the aggregate, on all package goods.

This man's farsighted vision had early shown him that to insure lasting success for his business he should have as many local people interested in a financial way as was possible, thus insuring community interest by giving them a share in the profits. Many of the great business concerns of the country are now convinced that to make lasting success they must interest their employees in a profit sharing way thereby breaking down that invisible wall or barrier, so often existing between employee and employer. The above sketch is a chapter from the life of James J. Hinde, who with his two sons is organizing a company here to manufacture shipping containers, now made use of in shipping very much of our package goods. This will lead to the building of a very large industry here, the starting of which will employ approximately one hundred and forty people.

SCIENTIST SAYS MEN DO NOT USE ALL OF BRAIN

Changes Taking Place in Human World Very Rapidly.

London.—We do not use our brains to half their capacity, says Sir Arthur Keith, British scientist, who has just returned from the African jungle, where he made a minute study of the brains of gorillas and gibbons.

"Most of us," declares Sir Arthur, "have more brains than we know what to do with."

The famous anthropologist said that changes are now taking place in the human world more rapidly than at any former period, but that the time has not yet come for the production of supermen. During the war, he explained, the average stature for a man was 5 feet 6 inches, the same as in the neolithic period. The average for men leading professional lives is 5 feet 8 inches.

The scientist says he is convinced that certain characteristics, which are easily recognized in the bodies of a large proportion of our modern population, are of recent origin. The most plastic bone in the human body, he said, is that under the gums, in which the teeth are rooted, and it is here that the most marked changes are to be noted.

"In quite 30 per cent of the people this bone," continued Sir Arthur, "instead of spreading outward and giving the roof of the mouth a wide and low vault, as in prehistoric races, grows in a vertical direction, giving the palate a narrow and high arch."

"In these contracted palates there is no longer room for the normal number of teeth. Such as appear are crowded; the wisdom teeth often fail to cut or are absent altogether."

"The recession of the teeth give the modern nose and chin an undue prominence; the tendency of all modern changes is toward the production of long and narrow faces. The 'adenoid' type of face, with which medical men are so familiar in modern children, was unknown in prehistoric times."

Plans to Drift for Three Years in Arctic

Capt. Robert A. Bartlett, who has come to New York to raise funds for a scientific expedition that will drift through the Arctic sea for three years in order to measure the flow of sea and air currents, dredge the bottom of the ocean for flora and fauna and chart the floor of the vast unknown sea. Bartlett is a veteran of five expeditions, the most famous of which was Peary's successful dash when he accompanied the explorer to within 110 miles of the goal.

Paris Prices Raise Again.

Paris.—The favorite topic of conversation in Paris, the high cost of living, displaced from time to time by the changing situation in the Ruhr, never is long neglected. Today it is flourishing. The vanguard of the 1923 crop of American tourists is here, and the retailers of the city are playing the game with the limit removed; any price goes.

New Claimant for Age Record.

London.—The latest entrant for international old age honors is a Hungarian woman by the name of Antonia Lippal, whose age is authenticated at one hundred and twenty-five years. She is reported to be in excellent health and very active.

Tobacco Juice Rout

Bull That Treed Men

Kingston, N. Y.—Frank Dobert and Henry Wingle, while working in the woods near here were attacked by a bull. The men hastily climbed a tree, thinking the animal would soon leave, but it kept them treed nearly an hour.

Finally Dobert suggested spitting tobacco juice in the animal's eyes. After several wild shots Dobert scored a bull's-eye which started the animal at top speed toward the mountains.

The men then descended and resumed work.

MIGRATING TO CITIES

Farm Hands Deserting the Fields in Increasing Numbers.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—Farmers are migrating to the cities, where bigger wages are to be had. They are deserting the fields in ever increasing numbers each year. Most every farm in the Buckeye state is short-handed, statistician C. J. West of the state federal crop reporting service announced. "It is true that the new and modern farm implements relieve the labor shortage to a certain extent," said West, "but there have been so many farm hands decide to move to the city of late that even with all the modern farm conveniences the farmer is left short-handed." According to West, the shortage in farm labor is most noticeable around corn husking time. Corn huskers are scarce in Ohio, although a good husker can make comparatively big money.

Struck by Machines.

Cleveland, Oct. 3.—Frank Weltell, 24, was hit by a five-ton truck and died before he could be taken to a hospital. John Vontorek, 8, of Lakewood, died at a hospital here as the result of a fractured skull received when struck by an auto.
